Citizen soldiers in the Michigan National Guard are being asked—now more than ever—to step up and play a vital role in our country's military mission both at home and abroad.

While the men and women of the National Guard are asked to uphold the Constitution and protect Americans' freedoms, they generally have civilian jobs as well, and require support in both roles. Many of our members are part-time soldiers or airmen, and full-time engineers, mechanics, technicians, police officers, firefighters, teachers, physicians, nurses, and laborers. In addition to their dual service to the military and the civil industries, many are fathers, mothers, grandparents, brothers, sisters, or guardians, working hard to support families all over the state of Michigan.

NGAM is proud to be the professional organization serving our citizen Soldiers as they serve our incredible state and nation. Being a partner with NGAM is one way to show your support for all that they do.

The National Guard Association of Michigan serves to advance the interests of the Michigan National Guard. The association works to promote the welfare of the organization and its members.
