

NGAM National Guard Association of Michigan

MEMORANDUM

DATE: 05 May 2023

TO: NGAM Membership and General Conference Attendees

FROM: NGAM Conference Committee

SUBJECT: 2023 NGAM Conference Committee Report

1. The 66th Annual NGAM Annual General Conference, being held at the MotorCity Casino Hotel on 19-21 May 2023 has 184 members, guests, and partners present. We have 30 partners on display in the exhibit hall. We have at least 50 fellow Guard members showing up after lunch to spend the final part of the day with us.

2. During the past year, NGAM participated in multiple conferences, including the NGAUS Capital Summits, EANGUS Legislative Workshop, AUSA National Expo, MING Joint Junior Leaders Symposium. NGAM was able to support professional development attendees at both the EANGUS and NGAUS National Conferences.

3. Upcoming conferences that NGAM plans to support will be:

- a. EANGUS 2023: 13-15 August 2023 (Rochester, MN)
- b. NGAUS 2023: 18-21 August 2023 (Reno, NV)
- c. NGAUS Capital Summit: 17-19 September 2023 (Washington DC)
- d. AUSA National Expo: 8-10 October 2023 (Washington, DC)
- e. MING Leaders Conference: 3-5 November 2023 (Lansing, MI)
- f. EANGUS and NGAUS Legislative Workshop: February 2024 (Washington, DC)
- g. MING Joint Junior Leaders Conference: April 2024 (Alpena, MI)
- h. EANGUS Area V Caucus Meeting: May 2024 (Rochester, MN)
- i. Motor City 2024: NGAM will host EANGUS (17-21 August 2024) and NGAUS (23-26 August 2024) in Detroit, Michigan

4. The 2024 NGAM Annual General Conference will be 17-19 May 24 at the Fort Pontchartrain Hotel in Detroit.

Richie Sands, 1st Vice President
Conference Committee Chairman